Collusion With Gaugers.

GREENSBORO, N. C., April 11.—A. J.
Davis is now on trial in the Federal Court here, charged with irregularities while acting as gauger for the Miller and Oak Grove Liquor Company, with headquarters at Milton and branch wholesale establishments in Kentucky, Okiahoma; Jillinois, Texas and Minnesota. The case was begun last Friday, and the trial is still in progress, the defendant, Davis, now on the stand as a witness in his own behalf, and being rigidly cross-examined by District Attorney Holton.

case, as bearing on the alleged existence of an immense conspiracy to defraud the government by the juggling with wholesale liquor dealers' stamps in reporting

THE VENUS OF MILO.

Life-Size Replica of Original Presented by Students to College.

sented by Students to College.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DURHAM, N. C., April 11—11 has been the custom for the graduating class of Trinity College to present some gift to the college, as a mark of their esteem and love for their aima mater. The class of 1901 has presented to the college a copy of Venus de Milo, the size of the original in the Louvre, at Paris. This excellent piece of art has been placed in the east balcony of the library. The unveiling exercises took place Thursday evening, at which time the stature was formally presented.

Dr. Edwin Mims read a poem, after which Miss Corrie Scrugss, a member of the senior class, unveiled the Venus. Mr. Lockhart made a short speech, describing Compulsory vaccination is meeting with considerable opposition. About two thousand citizens have petitioned the aldermen to revoke the ordinance. These petitioners also held a mass meeting last week, in which they passed opposing resolutions, which will also be presented to the board. A good deal of feeling is being injected into the matter.

North Carolina Sentiment. The Asheville Citizen does not offer to hit the plow itself, but it furnishes this encouraging information:

Recent agricultural reports issued by the State, show that vast tracts of fine lands are lying idle for the want of workers. North Carolina needs all of her sons to till a soll which can easily be made to yield rich returns.

Senator Simmons told the truth when he declared that the imporfect limited investigation of the Postoffice Department aftairs did not satisfy the people. "It has rather augmented their suspicions." THE DELINEATOR FOR MAY.

In addition to an elaborate portrayal of current fashions and other matter of special interest to women, The Delineator for May contains literary and artistic features of the highest excellence. In fiction, there are two short stories: His Fiances, by Virginia Woodward Cloud, and The Battle to the Strong, by John H. Whitson, and a dramatic chapter of the Evolution of a Club Woman, by Agnes Surbridge. The story of Catherine Sevier, conspicuous in the early history of Tennessee, is the first of a series on Great Women of Ploneer Times. Among the present day great, Mime. Sembrich, the famous soprano, is the subject of an interesting article by Gustav Kobbe, the illustrations of which are of special value. In Around the World in Eighty Pictures, the reader is taken into a field of greatest interest—Japan and Corea. Lillie Hamilton French's remarks on Mothers and Marriagable Sons, will be greatly enjoyed, and Dr. Murray's instructions in regard to the care of the mouth and teeth will be found helpful by everyone. In addition there are engaging stories and pastimes for the little ones, and timely information for almost every department of the home. THE DELINEATOR FOR MAY.

In declining this great $2,400 honor, we have three reasons;

1st. After a man once serves his country as Mayor, or conductor on a Pullman car, he gets lazy, and loses energy, and can't get anything to do, unless he learned a good trade in his youh. He must either become a conductor, politician or an attendant upon the Pollee Court.

2d. We don't want to be one of the party to which the public allude when it says every Tom, Dick and Harry is running for Mayor.

2d. We can't run very fast, because our leg was pulled at the last wrestling match; and we haven't seen Moses May lately about his Walk Overs.

Specifically, these are our reasons, but generally speaking, we'd like the job. Three hours a day at $200 per month would suit us. We'd be able to keep out of debt, and have enough besides to accommodate our friends.

If we were a candidate, our platform would be broad and liberal,
We would put all the money in the treasury in circulation, by increasing everybody's salary—including our own.

We'd allow the children to play ball in all the city parks, and skate on the streets and's idewalks.

We'd improve all the streets and allow smoking on the owl cars, and we'd find somebody who could throw Dwyer.

But we cannot become a candidate, for we do not wish to come into contact with Johnnie Weckert, whot has announced himself as the Republican constitutional candidate for Mayor. have three reasons; 1st. After a man once serves his coun-

And we wouldn't like to run against him.
